peakpacific

ALTO© LMS

Datasheet

For Learners

- Personalisable interface language, look and feel, and other user attributes
- Ability to discover optional courses via search or browsing a catalog hierarchy
- Online transcript and personal training plan review
- Upload and share files
- iCalendar support allowing session details to be added to calendar applications (e.g. Outlook)
- Ability to print certificates for certifications achieved
- Threaded discussion forums, both general and course-specific, to allow for social learning Graphical
- Learning Plan layout to view required job- or skills-related training
- Ability to have different course offering and tracking for learners who have different job positions at different business locations.

For Administrators

- Creation and definition of customised user roles
- Granular permissions at varying levels depending on the objects and the need to control access
- Ability for any module to be automatically marked "completed" when an online assessment is passed
- Highly configurable course communications:
  - Course notification triggers, sent in multiple languages, different types of recipients
  - Configurable attributes
  - Certification tracking
  - Full user demographic profiles
  - Easy to create and manage user groups with CVS loader
  - Multiple payment options including e-payment gateways
  - Built in virtual classroom with Big Blue Button, MS Teams, and others

For Managers

- Ability to share announcements via the home page
- A multitude of standard reports as well as ad hoc custom reports using the Reporting tool
- Creation of certification programs
- Report scheduler for automatic delivery via email
- CSV data loader for managing data uploading in bulk
- Analytics reporting to enable managers to review training, exam, and compliance information
- Learning path, competency and skills mapping for employee readiness

Exam Engine

- Built-in online quizzes to support all four Kirkpatrick levels
- Questions banks for multiple exams
- Limitations on access for security through proxy codes or IP address restrictions
- Configuration for when exams can be printed, require manual grading, and allow review of the questions and answers
- Ability to create resists for multiple attempts

© 2026 Peak Pacific

System

- Comprehensive, configurable auditing of system activity
- Data archiving functions
- SAML Single Sign-On
- Integrated Windows authentication (Single Sign-On) Integrated Active
- Directory and LDAP authentication
- Configurable menus
- Configurable home page
- Easy and flexible custom integrations with HR, ERP, CRM, and other enterprise systems
- Optimised smartphone web access and mobile application for offline course playing
- An extensive library of approved add ins

Course Handling

- Supports for SCORM, AICC, xAPI, and LTI
- Capture SCORM/AICC “interactions,” allowing reports on individual question responses within a course
- Bulk loading capability for eLearning courseware and CSV metadata loader
- Programs support blended learning for online, classrooms, and virtual classrooms
- Organisation unit-specific enrollment policies, including requiring additional information, enrollment approval and notifications
- Automatic enrollments based on user attributes
- Ability to control eLearning content versions
- Classroom course scheduler

Contact us today to learn more about ALTO LMS's solutions and how they can organization’s learning and performance initiatives.

sales@peakpacificgroup.com

© 2026 Peak Pacific